~~I'll be your friend~~ Do you want to be my friend?

Jack was a sad boy. No one wanted to play with him. "What's wrong with me" - used to ask Jack other boys from his street. "You're just not cool enough" - they said. Jack was miserable. He wanted to feel like everyone else. He was lonely.

Once in a marvelous day Jack woke up feeling ~~happier~~ happier than usual. "Today I'll make a friend" - promised Jack to himself. He got out of the bed and looked outside through the window. Some boys were standing there, talking about something.

Jack left his house and went in their direction. "Hi" - said little Jack. "What do you ^{to} want, kid" - barked a tall boy. "I just wanted to play with you, guys" - answered Jack. They looked at him, then smirked. "Listen, kid, we seem to have a big problem. We've just lost our ball, so if you could bring us yours, we'd let you stay. Excellent" - thought Jack - "I'll finally have a chance".

Little boy brought the ball and the game started but no one seem to consider Jack a part of the team. Jack immediately got sad. Suddenly the ball flew past Jack and was nowhere to be seen. "Jack, you should go and look for it, it's your ball after all" - agreed everyone. Jack had no choice. He couldn't disappoint his new found friends. He ran and ran until he saw his ball in arms of a short redhaired boy, who's hair reminded of the sun. "What are you looking for?" - friendly asked the sunny boy. "Friends" - said Jack without realising it. They found each other's gaze and in less than a minute Jack heard: "Do you want to be my friend?"
